Phone Company Announces Direct Dialing For June

Pacific Telephone customers in Brockway, Tahoe City, Crystal Bay and Truckee will be able to dial their own long distance calls starting this summer, Manager L. R. deGallery said.

Phones at the north end of the Lake and at Truckee will be hooked into the nationwide direct distance dialing network in June.

At the same time, pay phone booths around the lake and at Truckee will switch to a simplified pre-pay arrangement.

Under the new system, pay phone customers will deposit their money when they hear a dial tone before the call is made. At present, customers deposit money after they get their party but before they begin talking.

Telephone installers will replace some 350 pay telephones around the lake to make the change. They will start in April and finish by mid-June.

Talking about the change to direct dialing for long distance calls, deGallery said customers will first dial "1", which connects them to the automatic DDD equipment, then the desired number.

Three digit area codes must be dialed before the number on some calls to other areas. Detailed instructions will be given to all customers before this summer.

Equipment will automatically record the time and charges of the call. This information will be included in the customer's monthly bill on a separate itemized statement.

Customers in Homewood are scheduled to get direct distance dialing at the end of this year. The south Tahoe area will be able to dial long distance calls when the new equipment building, now under construction, is completed in several years.

They were joined on the victory rostrum by Virginia Birimis,a 16, of Mt. Shasta, who beat out seven qualifying boys and five other girls who advanced to the complementing event. Interest Grows In District Election; 4 Candidates File

Four candidates whose names will appear on the special election March 13 to decide on the formation of the Truckee Donner Recreation and Park District have filed petitions and several others are expected to announce before the deadline February 20.

N. F. Dolley, manager of the Truckeee Donner Chamber of Commerce, which is sponsoring the project, said this week that Daven Morey, Dr. H. P. Tapia, Charles Osburn and Sherman Reams have filed as candidates and that H. C. Savage of Floriston has announced his intention of being a candidate.

The committee in charge of the program is seeking at least eight or ten candidates for the five offices of directors.

Under a "gentlemen's agreement", Dolley said, it is hoped to have one director from Floriston, one from Soda Springs, one from Donner Lake and two from Truckee.

Dolley and F. W. Wilson, a member of the committee, met with the Floriston Property Owners Association Monday night to explain the issue and answer questions. Dolley said the group apparently favored the idea after being informed that the district was not being formed to purchase expensive property, but to develop the entire district to provide needed recreation facilities.

State Senator Ronald Cameron has advised the chamber of benefits which can be expected from the state in event the district is formed.

It was also emphasized by Dolley that the county is currently contemplating a county-wide recreation district which would include the fifth supervisorial district but which probably would not provide the facilities needed in the eastern end of the county. However, this end of the county, if it was without a district, would be required to assist in the financing.

The committee from the chamber including Dr. Tapia, Judge Wilson and Ivan Tofft will attend future meetings to explain in detail the purposes of the district and its benefits to the area.

County Building Program Slated To Start In 1963

The Truckee Donner area will not have its new county building before the fall of 1963.

This was announced by Supervisor H. G. Loehr following a meeting of the Nevada County Board of Supervisors last Tuesday during which Stanley Halls, chairman of the county building committee made a report on the progress.

The building committee is a non-profit group which will complete the proposed $1,000,000 program and be repaid by the county on a lease-rental basis. The program includes an annex to the court house as well as the Truckee building.

It was explained that because of technicalities in the financing program and the architectural delays, the project could not be started or let for contract before February, 1963. Halls told the supervisors his group is prepared to start operations immediately and that planning can be completed by May 1.

It is estimated that it will take approximately four months to construct the local building which will cost around $100,000. The land, located just east of the Tahoe Forest Hospital, has been purchased from R. Joseph for $18,000 and will be ready for the construction when final details have been worked out, Loehr explained.

Sportsmen Meet Scheduled Friday

Further discussion on the feasibility of recommending to the state fish and game commission that a substantial area in this district be set aside for a temporary deer refuge, will feature Friday night's meeting of the Truckee Outdoor Sportsmen.

In some quarters, including the commission itself, according to Didector Charles Osburn, are not in accord with the proposal at this time, contending that only the shortage of winter feed is responsible for the decline in the deer population.

The majority of the local sportsmen believe that if a refuge was established for a couple of years, it would give the bucks as well as the fawns a chance to mature and replenish the local herds.

The meeting will be held tomorrow evening at 7:30 at the fire station and refreshments will be served following the close of the meeting.

SUPERVISORS FAVOR NEW HIGHWAY NAME

The Nevada County Board of Supervisors became one of the first western Nevada organizations to formally endorse Stevens Pass as the name for the new highway route from Soda Springs to Donner Lake.

Speaker Declares Economic Survey Is Vital To Region

That an economic and industrial survey is a vital neecssity for the future of this area was emphasized yesterday at a meeting of the Truckee Donner Chamber of Commerce at Smart's by George Sawyer, manager of the Sacramento Valley Council of the state chamber of commerce.

More than 60 interested people, including state and county representatives and heads of various local industries and utilities heard Sawyer outline the methods of conducting such a survey and the potential benefits possible. The speaker used as his guide an outline prepared previously by Cecil Edmunds showing the way the survey can be conducted by local committees. He highly praised the outline which would involve no cost to the chamber or community.

The survey would, Sawyer explained, provide a valuable guide for the future development of the area and give facts and figures to those contemplating coming here either for business reasons or to make their homes.

Among the items which should be covered in the report are the history and location, the climate, population, present industries, power, fuel and water available, transportation, community services, wholesale and retail outlets, labor supply, natural resources, real estate values, housing, living costs, recreation facilities, markets and various other facts.

This report would be made available to outside agencies, including the state chamber and could be widely distributed, Sawyer said.

From the report, a trend for future development would be shown. It is proposed to make the survey to include the whole of the fifth supervisorial district and eventually tie in with a similar report from North Lake Tahoe.

While the employment of an outside agency to conduct the survey is possible, Sawyer explained, much of its value would be in the fact that it would be prepared by the same people it would guide if it is handled by local committees.

Officials from local corporations and companies, such as Sierra Pacific Power, Fibreboard and the Telephone company showed an interest and offered cooperation in the survey.

County Planning Director William Roberts and Assessor Charles Kitts personally offered assistance while Harold Berliner, district attorney, wrote to assure his cooperation.

The chamber will discuss the matter further at a future meeting to decide whether the survey shall be made.

Sidewalk Cooking Banned By Deputy

Skiers, it is said, will try anything once, but Truckee, which has seen nearly everything the skier tries, was given a mild shock Saturday morning when two boys, 15 and 16, attempted to cook their breakfast over a camp stove situated in the middle of the sidewalk in front of the Bank of America.

They were getting along splendidly and the odor of the sizzling bacon was being wafted down the main street, when Deputy Sheriff Leo Zander put in an appearance and put a stop to the culinary prowess by sending the boys on their way — recommending a nearby restaurant.

One of Truckee's old-time residents, Oscar Schumacher, who has witnessed the antics of winter sport enthusiasts for many years, declared that this was new to him, but added: "that bacon sure smelled good."

BISTATE PARK PLAN IS FURTHERED AT MEETING AT SQUAW

The second step in a proposed bistate park area to include all of Lake Tahoe, was taken at a meeting of members of the California and Nevada State Park Commission at Squaw Valley Saturday.

It was the second meeting of the Interstate Cooperation Committee of the Nevada and California State Park Commissions, the first being held in Reno November 18 when the plan was first proposed.

At the Squaw Valley meeting Saturday, it was generally agreed that the boundaries of the new park district should extend from the foothills in Nevada to the summit of the Lake Tahoe basin in California.

One of the thorniest problems encountered in the discussions Saturday was financing and maintenance of private undeveloped property, almost all of which is in Nevada. A recommended formula would be based loosely on usage, the percentage of residents of each state taking advantage of the facilities, and the economic benefit and liability to each state. The formula would be reviewed on a biennial basis.

It was pointed out that while Californians would constitute an overwhelming majority of park users, virtually all the land available is in Nevada. Most of the land is owned by George Whittell of San Mateo County and earlier reports indicated his 24,000 acres are up for sale at $20 million.

Robert Hatch of the California Division of Beaches and Parks staff said initial studies show 180 campsites, 450 day camps and parking for 600 cars to accommodate 6,000 persons a day could be developed in Nevada areas of the lake. He estimated the cost of initial development at $932,000 and the annual maintenance at $119,000.

SACRAMENTO — (CNS) — Secretary of State Frank M. Jordan today announced issuance of a notary public commission to Thomas D. Sutton, Box 88, Truckee Rd., Kings Beach.

SIERRA COLLEGE IS SKI TROPHY VICTOR

DONNER SUMMIT— Sierra College skiers have carried the governors cup, newest intercollegiate winter sports trophy, back to their Rocklin campus after completing a clean sweep of the four way tourney which ended Sunday at Reno's Mt. Rose Bowl following a start Friday at Donner Ski Ranch.

Final team scores were Sierra, 384.5 points; Chico State, 341.9; California, 255.9; College of the Siskiyous, 135.3.

Coach Paul Chesney's Wolverines were paced all the way by the expert skiing of Ed Ronnestad, who won the concluding jumping event to complete a sweep of individual honors. The Norwegian born student previously had scored individual victories in the cross country, downhill and slalom.

"I've lived my life and done my best."

Thomas Edison's own words, spoken during the last few hours of his life, do not begin to do justice to his great accomplishments. The incandescent electric bulb, his most famous invention, entered our lives a scant eighty years ago. Since then, with each passing year, electricity has become more and more a part of our way of life.
This week the entire electrical industry pays tribute to the man who lived his life and did his best, and by doing his best, enriched our lives more than we truly realize. This week we honor THOMAS ALVA EDISON.

SUMMIT SCENE

By FRAN COUILLARD

Hello again! I'm not going to apologize even once more for missing you. Seems like everything piles up at once on this mountain — either dose or dirth of news. So when nothing is cooking—then we aren't going to try and write reams of nothing!

Had a real nice party the other night at the Snow Flake Restaurant on the Soda Springs Ski Hill. Most of you know that the Snow Flake is operated by Bob and Bobby Chang — a delightful Chinese couple. And for those of you who do not know it—well you know it now. And Bob and Bobby put out a Chinese dinner that is simply designed to put you in orbit—in other words "out of this world". And about once a ski season — when Bob and Bobby are notified in plenty of time — we get a group together and have ourselves a Gourmet's Oriental delight. Lost track of the courses somewhere around the 11th course! Some from the Sugar Bowl arrived in resplendant ski togs—quite a few from the Soda Springs area — and down from around Rainbow way came Milt and Maggie Avila, too. And extemporaneous speeches were made and a general good time was held around the groaning board—which turned into a moaning board after we lost track at that 11th course.

And then another party — with Bill and Dot Cannon host and hostessing for a natal day celebration. Tall, handsome Jim Porten — one of the Guy F. Atkinson "stay putters" on this hill — who has become kind of an admired permanent figure in the Summit Scene, had himself a birthday on about the end of January time which date "leaked out" and so a birthday party with a sharp buffet, a traditional birthday cake and champagne punch was whipped into shape. And Jim was properly surprised by Dot and Bill — a few neighbors and his cohorts with the company (who also have remained until construction starts again in the spring.)

* * *

We have to interrupt the party business to say that we are now waving good-bye to Fran and Howard Dragoo who are taking off for their annual pilgrimage to Guymas and Alamos — State of Sonora Mexico! For a whole month to fish, and bask in the Mexican sun, and take rolls and rolls of colored slides that we won't be able to wait and see in the late spring. (The reason we put down the whole address is that Fran and Howard would like to have a posal card or a note — now and then from their mountain friends, they say.) And if you are not to envious of these two, who can take a whole month away from us in the busy, busy white gold season — then drop a line that they can amuse themselves with whilst they have a line in the water catching Marlin and sail fish — no less!

You've read about the finger of coincidence, and something about the widening circles when a rock is dropped in a puddle, and the tenacles of an octupus—and things like that. Well — it reached us this past week end. We, who listened to radio and television and pitied the poor souls in the pit of the fog bound countries to the east, to the west, to the coast and otherwise. We who made up our beds for our week end businesses — and prepared in other ways. We who kind of smirked as we reveled in our sunshine on top of this pimple and looked below at the swirling, billowing, treacherous black stuff- But we got our comupence — we did. And this past week end when bus loads were cancelled — "due to dangerous driving conditions" and skiers were politely asked not to clutter the highway as "this trip was not necessary". The four hundred kids from the San Juan High School District which were supposed to "wall to wall" the Soda Springs Ski Hill this past Saturday — were "grounded" in Sacramento. And so the long, wispy fingers of the valley fog sent its shadow up the hill — and that extra potato we put in the pot will have to be fried in the morning, we guess'

* * *

Pixie faced Patty Kelly — who at fourteen gives forth the aura of a beautiful future, is as level headed a youngster as you'll want to meet. You can cut this out and put it in your scrap book under the heading of "Soda Springs Kids Who Have A Future" for from time to time I'll corral these busy youngsters and give you the picture. Patty came to Soda Springs five years ago from "far away" — Emigrant Gap — to be exact. Her dad, Al Kelly, is one of the members of the Soda Springs Ski Corporation. As Patty has been skiing but seven years — we are wondering if Al became a member of the Soda Springs Ski Corporation due to Patty's promise? And Patty's promise is a brilliant future in the skiing world. Patty's mother, Jerry, abets her daughters career on the slats whilst little sister, Janice, watches Patty's flying skis and wonders if she should try to emulate this older snow doll! Noting Patty's second place trophy in the huge field of contestants at the Sacramento Bee's Silver Ski Race at Edelweiss, this past weekend prompted us to give Patty this interview from our list of "Soda Springs Kids Who Have a Future."

Patty races for the Sugar Bowl Ski Club and attends the Tahoe-Truckee High School. Her second place in the Class Two Girls Division in the "Bee" race was superceded earlier this year by a first place (in the same division) in the Yuba-Sutter Race. In the Senior Race at the Sugar Bowl — in the Class One Women's Division — Patty, the youngest entrant in the race — came in first also. In 1961 she took third place in the Buek Memorial Race (Class Three girls) while in 1960 — in the same event she came in second.

So remember pretty Patty's promise and watch this youngster's racing legs!

* * *

And we can hardly get our column finished for parties — and news of more parties to come. For as we write this a champagne punch and finger sandwich party is going on for two mountain dolls that have decided to leave this mountain. Marlene Maughn and Diane Anderson — both have been affiliated with the Hojyfollet Lodge in the Castle Creek Country and with the Zorich Ski Shop. And Bill and Dot Cannon are presenting said dolls with bracelets that say Soda Springs — just as tho' they needed a reminder of the best time of their lives.

* * *

As we look back over this column we find it happy, frothy and airy — what with parties, sunshine, skiing records of our kids, and things like that. So to balance it off — and we like this not for we dislike reporting anything of a disasterous nature at all! But when the forest service calls and says "help, help!" It usually means someone's house is on fire. And it was. And we are glad the Bill Cannon, Frank Stella and John Schmidt were on hand to grab the Hotel's fire extinguishers and be the first ones on the scene at Pla Vada. Because the beautiful little home they went to rescue included the office that we sat in for a couple of years as tract manager of the Pla Vada development. But anyway the quick, efficient and knowledgeable work done by our first valiant three as mentioned — saved the outside of this little

The street light project reported on last week is the project of the North Tahoe Public Utility District. The lights extend through the boundaries of that district which extends from Brockway to the middle of Tahoe Vista. The power company has done the installation and got the permits from the highway department to install the lights. Extension of lights in other areas will have to come from a new district. They are a great improvement in the area.

And as we write this we are rather disgruntled that we cannot reach Madylon Jones Walton on the phone. For she told us yesterday she was leaving Soda Springs this day (Sunday) for her Sacramento home — there to pack three bags — one for her, one for Stan Walton and one for Starr Walton, of course! And this threesome, all packed, take off for Europe on Feb. 7th via plane. There they will pick up a new Volkswagon to do their touring. And why we are disgruntled (outside of being a little jelous) is because we didn't find out how long they were going to stay — where we could drop them a card, if we were so inclined. What Starr's skiing program is — and likewise. But as they wrote us when Madylon and Starr took last year's jaunt to Europe — mayhap we'll be able to report more later on.

* * *

And we can hardly stay seated at our typewriter because Angelo Morello stands over us and talks of an engagement party for he and his gal — said party to "come off" next Sunday. So we'll report that deal later so you will not believe that our life is one continual round of parties, and know that the "gong" rings for a good fight with the realities of things once in awhile.

For instance — after feeding a San Francisco group next Saturday evening a la banquet style — we turn right around and feed the Marin County Ski Patrol Group a la banquet style, and both parties, on the same night, is going to make it rather rough for it isn't too easy to throw two banquets on one night when the aggregate will be about one hundred and twenty five. Oh, well!

And we think we had better close now, as we'd kind of like to join the party that is now taking place.

BUT WE forgot one thing, we remember. Bob Strickland is home from his Germany stint in the service.

We thought him "too young" when he went into his country's service, but we withtdraw our first opinion and insert a second. Seems to have been fine for him. Grew up overnight, almost.

Morning Services, 11 a. m.
The spiritual significance of events in the life of the Apostle Paul will be brought out at Christian Science church services this Sunday.
Keynoting the Lesson-Sermon on the subject of "Spirit" is the Golden Text from II Corinthians (3): "Where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty."
Paul's enlightenment is emphasized in reading from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, including this citation (p. 324): "When the truth first appeared to him in Science, Paul was made blind, and his blindness was felt; but spiritual light soon enabled him to follow the example and teachings of Jesus healing the sick and preaching Christianity throughout Asia Minor, Greece, and even in imperial Rome."

TNT TIDINGS

By Jack Sigesmund

J.S.A. Holds First Dance—

TNT's chapter of the Junior Statesmen of America held its first dance last Friday, February 2 from 8:00-11:00 p.m. in the school cafeteria.

"Hearts Forever" was the theme decorated with red and white streamers. Refreshments of punch, cake and cookies were served.

Approximately twenty couples attended, all of them dancing to the latest dance craze, the "Twist." Many of the couples participated in a twist contest — a box of candy the prize. Toni Taylor and Charlie Glenn won first place; and Madeline Kammerer and Micky Strickland took second place.. Madeline and Micky also won a second box of candy by surviving a freeze dance.

All those who attended felt it was a successful dance!

J.S.A. Holds Legislative Meet—

First legislative session of TahoeTruckee High School's J.S.A. Club was held last Monday, February 5 from 8:30-9:15 a.m. in the school cafeteria.

First order of business was a piece of legislation presented by Kent Fugazi concerning a point system to be used for selecting chapter representatives to attend state conventions.

An amendment to the bill calling for a committee to review and revise it through amendments was introduced by Jack Sigesmund who called the bill "wholly unsatisfactory and incomplete." The amendment was passed and the bill was referred to a special committee that will re-introduce it at the next legislative meeting.

Cathy Barker gave the treasurer's report, and Mr. Goodhue congratulated the club on its very successful dance last Friday.

Talent Show Planned—

March 17 has been set as the date for the talent show to be sponsored by the Junior Class of TNT. It will be held for all the community at the Little Theatre in Truckee (old elementary school).

Tryouts are now being held. Students from Kings Beach Elementary, Tahoe Lake, Truckee Elementary, and Tahoe-Truckee High schools have been auditioning.

Freshmen Class Meeting Held—

A freshmen class meeting was held last January 30 to discuss fund-raising projects for the class to undertake.

It was decided that red and white beanies and pennants would be sold at the basketball games.

David Sorani, class president, and other class officers will meet in the near future to discuss the quantity, figure the price, and obtain permission from the student council to hold such a sale at the games.

NEW SUMMIT ROUTE MAY HONOR PIONEER

The memory of Elisha Stevens, the hawk nosed frontiersman and blacksmith who successfully led a wagon train over the Sierra into California in 1844, may be honored in the near future.

There is growing agitation to give the name of Stevens Pass to the cleft in the Sierra summit which will be traversed by the new link of Highway 40 now under construction.

Petitions for the Stevens Pass designation are being prepared by history minded persons and groups. The documents will be presented soon to all agencies concerned with California place names.

A lake, a pass and a creek bear the name Donner to keep fresh the memory of the ill fated party which came west two years after the Stevens party but only inconspicuous little Stevens Creek in Santa Clara County salutes the name of the pioneer who led the way to the west.

Cecil Edmunds of Truckee, chairman of the Nevada County Planning Commission and chairman of a Truckee Chamber of Commerce committee assigned to seek a name for the new pass, said the name Stevens Pass is proving popular.

Edmunds has invited historic and civic groups with an interest in the naming to write to him in care of the Truckee chamber.

Hydroelectric power generated by San Francisco's Hetchy Hetchy system supplies all municipal power needs, as well as two irrigation districts and two industrial customers.

More Racers Sign For Lake Dog Derby

KINGS BEACH — Lloyd Hall, chairman of the Tahoe Sierra Dog Derby announced today that nine entries had been received by the derby's sponsors. In addition to three of the Tahoe Sierra areas local teams, six other "Mushers" from distances as far as 500 miles from Tahoe's North shore have entered. Jack E. Dale of El Monte will drive this distance to race his team of Alaskan Huskies.

Other "Mushers" entering the revival of dog sled racing include George Stehlik and his Siberian huskies, hailing from Mammoth Lakes; Lee Fishback will race a new team of huskies and setters, and Chuck Emrick's Nanook Kennels have entered their Siberian huskies, along with Pat Daniels who also races Siberian huskies, the last three entries all from Nevada City. A team of Samoyed and mixed breed have been entered by James J. Allen, who resides in Murphys.

Local entrants include a team of Irish setters, driven by Gary Gunkel; a hound team entered and driven by Bill English of Tahoe City; and a many times champion, Lloyd Van Sickle, driving a team of Targee hounds, of Truckee, completes the last of entries to this date. Several more teams are expected to respond from Southern California, Arizona and Idaho.

The race marshal for the Tahoe Sierra Dog Derby, March 10 and 11 was also named today by Chairman Hall. Harry Johanson, a well known dog sled racer, long time resident, and constable of North Lake Tahoe has accepted this important position in the conduct of the races. Hall said he and his committee did not feel that a better race marshal was available to conduct the dog racing revival.

RECORD ENROLLMENT AT SIERRA COLLEGE

A record spring enrollment of 885 regular and 137 evening school students was reported at Sierra College today by Registrar James McClusky as the spring semester opened at the Rocklin campus.

A few late students are expected to enroll before Friday's deadline for changing of programs, McClusky added. Thursday evening is the deadline for signing up for spring evening classes.

The spring enrollment is down slightly from the peak fall enrollment of 1033, but well above the 700 enrollment of a year ago. Sierra officials expect to announce the final proposed summer school schedule of classes this week.

BIG SUIT IS FILED TO COLLECT INCLINE FEE

A news dispatch from San Francisco says Kenneth Richardson, San Francisco developer, yesterday filed a $4,860,000 breach of contract suit against Crystal Bay Development Company, developer of Incline Village at Lake Tahoe.

Richardson charged in U. S. District Court that Arthur L. Wood, president of Crystal Bay, had illegally repudiated a contract last July 27 promising Richardson fees for consulting and for obtaining financing.

His fees, Richardson said, were to have been three per cent of the sale value of the property, which he put at $162 million.

Richardson is president of K-R Homes, Inc., Orinda, Calif.

Panel At School Week's Highlight

By JACK SIGESMUND

Tahoe-Truckee High School played host last Friday to two special guests from Auburn and Portola High School. Two foreign students, Silvana Viestina, native of Italy and Ali Shenyoruk, native of Turkey, were invited to TNT for a special luncheon and as the guest panelists for two special assemblies.

A special luncheon was prepared by the cafeteria and served by Miss Witham's fourth period home economics class. Guests at the luncheon were board members, guest teachers, student panelists, and Silvana and Ali.

Cathy Barker and Jack Sigesmund were chosen as the girl and boy representatives of the school's student body. They served as the personal escorts of the foreign visitors during their stay.

Two assemblies were held during fifth and sixth periods to introduce the student body to the foreign exchange program since it is hoped that TNT will welcome a foreign student to its campus next year. Speeches were presented by Cathy Barker on the friendship created by having foreign visitors come to our country; and Jack Sigesmund, panel mediator, presented a speech on the purpose of the foreign exchange program and how America as well as other nations can benefit by it.

Panelists for the senior-junior assembly were: Cathy Barker; Jack Sigesmund, panel mediator; Kitty Bean, Bob Jinks, Kay Clauser and Craig Beck.

Silvana and Ali are both seniors and will complete their senior year in America. They will return to their respective countries in June of this year.

Silvana is presently attending high school in Auburn and is living with the Dr. R. Rath family.

Ali, a student at Portola High School, is living with the Lee E. Thomas family.

PROPANE COMPANIES WARNED ON VENTS

TAHOE CITY— Propane companies serving the North Tahoe communities have been warned by the Placer County Building Department to comply with building code requirements in the installation of facilities. The code will be strictly enforced the eight North Tahoe companies were reminded.

The code provide for venting gas pipe installations, and related construction which requires building permits.

Visit Matchams—

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Martini were visitors last week at the Minden Nevada home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Matcham. The Matchams are well known in the Truckee, Lake Tahoe area where they lived for a number of years before moving to Nevada in a new home development.

Out of Hospital—

Mrs. James Walker returned home Wednesday after she had been a patient in Tahoe Forest Hospital this week.

Attend Funeral—

Rev. and Mrs. Clarence Crawford were called to Fresno to attend the funeral of his uncle who passed away at the age of 92 years.

License Issued—

Robert Boyle, 26 and Cecilia Elkins, 22 both of Norden, California were issued a Reno marriage license.

SKIS ARE STOLEN AT VALLEY LAST WEEK

SQUAW VALLEY— While she was being treated for injuries suffered while skiing, thieves stole a pair of skiis belonging to Terry McGettigan of San Francisco.

Others reporting their skis stolen during the week were Robert Buckman, Sacramento; Mary Ellen Dixon, Tahoe City; David Nakamura, Los Altos, and Allen J. Lichtenberg, Donner Ski Ranch.

Helga Sach of San Francisco reported the loss of a suitcase while getting into her car at Deer Lodge, but the luggage was later returned to her.

Dr. Gardner Pier reported to officers that his foreign car was stripped last week.

ESCAPEE NABBED

Raymond Lee Mellis, 22, who escaped from the Truckee jail on May 5, 1960, was arrested in Los Angeles this week on a forgery charge, Sergeant Roy Waters of the sheriff's department, learned. Mellis was serving 30 days in jail for defrauding an inn keeper when he escaped. He will be returned for prosecution, Waters said.

Fees For Grazing On Forest Are Set

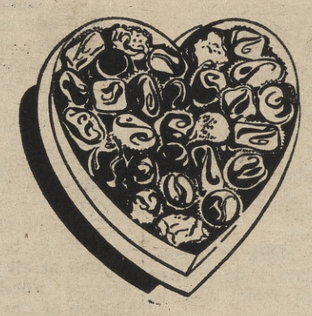

The 1962 grazing fee rates for National Forest range lands have been received by the Tahoe National Forest. Supervisor Henry (Hank) Branagh reports that the fees for cattle have been set at 61 cents per animal month and for sheep 10¼ cents per animal month. So that the U. S. Government receives a fair return for the use of the public land, grazing fees are charged the livestock owner.

The Tahoe National Forest ranges provide the summer portion of operation for 2500 head of cattle and horses and 11,500 sheep. There are 42 cattle ranchers and 10 sheep operators who graze livestock on the forest.

The past three dry seasons have lowered the production of livestock feed on national forest ranges, and the indications are that if sufficient moisture is not forthcoming, the feed conditions will be sub-standard as they were in 1961.
